MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Intelligence
 SUBJECT : OER Contribution to the JEC

1. Hale Boggs, Chairman of the Subcommittee on Foreign Economic Policy of the Joint Economic Committee of the Congress has written a letter to the Director (attached) asking once again that we provide assistance to the JEC in one of their periodic reports on the Soviet economy.

2. We have been in contact with the staff member from the Library of Congress who is handling this for the JEC and had advanced word that this request would be coming over. We have fully staffed this out with Ed Proctor who in turn checked out our participation with Admiral Taylor. (See Ed Proctor's memorandum to me of 11 October 1967 attached.)

3. You will be amused that on page 2 of Hale Boggs' memorandum he has mistakenly given us the Census Bureau's assignment and apparently has given Census ours. We are told that a letter will be coming to me straightening this out. OER will contribute to a number of sections, including those listed in Attachment 3.

4. It doesn't seem to me that you or the Director need worry about this unless you feel the letter requires some kind of response. The JEC staff certainly understands that we are preparing our contribution. When we are ready to send our contributions over you will be advised.
